

U.S. Air Force Selects Leidos for ABMS Digital Infrastructure Consortium

September 19, 2022

RESTON, Va., Sept. 19, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- Leidos (NYSE: LDOS), a FORTUNE® 500 science and technology leader, was recently selected by the U.S. Department of the Air Force to join the service's newly launched Advanced Battle Management System (ABMS) Digital Infrastructure (DI) Consortium. As part of the consortium, Leidos will collaborate with industry partners to design, develop, and deploy modern Joint All-Domain Command & Control (JADC2) capabilities for the Air Force and Space Force.

"Establishing the DI Consortium is a significant milestone in realizing the DoD's JADC2 efforts," said Gerry Fasano, Leidos Defense Group President. "The Leidos team looks forward to bringing our decades of systems integration and digital modernization expertise to help drive the DoD's JADC2 strategy to reality."

With the consortium members, Leidos will work to deliver the Department of the Air Force's vision for distributed battle management and decision advantage by enabling speed, security, and integration at scale.
