

Leidos Regains Top Spot on Washington Technology Top 100 List

June 20, 2019

RESTON, Va., June 20, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Leidos (NYSE: LDOS), a FORTUNE® 500 science and technology leader, has regained the No. 1 ranking on the Washington Technology Top 100 list, the second time the company has made the top spot. The annual list ranks the largest government contractors in the federal market based on fiscal 2018 prime contracts in the areas of information technology, systems integration, professional services, and other high-tech services.

In its 50th year, Leidos continues to be a global leader in the integration and application of information technology, engineering, and science by developing innovative solutions for customers' most demanding challenges. Leidos completed a successful merger with Lockheed Martin's Information Systems & Global Solutions business in 2016, allowing the company to expand its scope and competencies at a much greater scale. Today, the $10.19 billion company focuses on high-growth segments such as secure digital transformation, mission critical software, and transformative logistics for domestic and international customers in the defense, civil, intelligence, and health markets.

"Our scale, technical competencies, talented people, and culture of innovation has enabled us to be a trusted provider of solutions and services to customers for 50 years," said Roger Krone, Leidos Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. "Regaining the top spot is a testament to the unwavering commitment of our employees who work hard every day to solve some of the world's toughest challenges."
