

Leidos to Implement Cloud-Based Solutions to Help Modernize Federal Trade Commission's IT Services

December 4, 2018

RESTON, Va., Dec. 4, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Leidos (NYSE: LDOS), a FORTUNE® 500 science and technology leader, was selected as one of the awardees for the FTC Information Technology Support Services (ITSS) Blanket Purchase Agreement (BPA) to help modernize its IT infrastructure and related services. The multiple-award BPA has an estimated total value of $100 million over a 5-year period of performance.

Leidos will apply user-centric design and agile implementation to help provide the FTC's ITSS program a secure, rapidly scalable, and interoperable IT infrastructure. Also as part of its task, Leidos will leverage shared staff, services, and solutions across multiple government programs the company supports to proactively offer and implement proven IT solutions and best practices to lower costs and risks for FTC.

"Leidos has partnered with the FTC for nearly 20 years," said Angie Heise, Leidos Civil Group President. "That experience and our approach to providing tailored enterprise IT solutions allows our customers' to meet their modernization goals for their most critical and unique missions. This award not only expands our existing footprint supporting the FTC, but also further enhances our ability to implement secure, cloud-based solutions and shared services that create efficiencies."
