

Leidos Executive, Angie Heise, Appointed to Mission Support Alliance Board of Directors

March 29, 2017

RESTON, Va., March 29, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Leidos (NYSE: LDOS), a global science and technology company, announced that Angie Heise was recently appointed to the Mission Support Alliance, LLC (MSA) board of directors. Heise is currently the president of the Leidos Civil Group, where she is responsible for leading a team of 10,000 employees providing solutions that improve the environment, energy efficiency, federal infrastructure, homeland and transportation security, and aviation experience to U.S. Cabinet-level civil agencies and major elements of the public and private sector across the globe.

MSA is made up of Leidos, Jacobs and Centerra Group, as well as several partners with specialized Hanford expertise. MSA provides integrated infrastructure services for the Hanford cleanup mission, including, but not limited to: roads and transportation services; electrical and water services; facility maintenance; emergency response (fire and patrol) services; network and software engineering; cyber security and records management; as well as environmental compliance and clean energy solutions.

"Angie's deep industry experience and work with civil agencies makes her an excellent addition to the MSA board," said Roger Krone, Leidos Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. "Her leadership skills and expertise will help MSA support its mission at the Hanford site."
