

Leidos Sponsors 36th National Veterans Wheelchair Games

June 27, 2016

RESTON, Va., June 27, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Leidos (NYSE: LDOS), a national security, health, and infrastructure solutions company, announced it is a Gold Sponsor of the 36th National Veterans Wheelchair Games, held in Salt Lake City from June 26-July 2. The Games are presented by the Paralyzed Veterans of America and the Department of Veterans Affairs. As the largest annual wheelchair multi-sports competition in the world, the Games offer 19 different sports to veterans who use wheelchairs due to spinal cord injuries, amputations and neurological diseases. The Games promote rehabilitation through rigorous competition in events including weightlifting, basketball, rugby, softball, handcycling and others. While past Games have produced national and world-class champions, the Games also provide opportunities for newly injured veterans to gain sports skills and meet other wheelchair athletes, while also promoting a spirit of healthy activity, competition and camaraderie.

"We are proud to be part of such an important event that showcases the talent, strength and perseverance of our nation's veterans," said Jon Scholl, Leidos president, Health and Infrastructure Group. "They are truly an inspiration to us all and a reminder that with hard work and dedication you can achieve great things."

This marks the seventh consecutive year that Leidos has sponsored the Games. As part of the sponsorship, the company donated $33,000 to help offset the event's cost. Throughout the year, Leidos has donated more than $50,000 to support various Paralyzed Veterans' activities, including its annual golf tournament and Mission: ABLE Awards event.
