

Leidos Receives Veterans Work Award from the Tennessee Veterans Business Association

January 13, 2015

Company Recognized for Commitment to Veteran Hiring and Retention

(Reston, Va. and Knoxville, Tenn.) January 13, 2015 – Leidos, a national security, health and engineering solutions company, has received the Veterans Work award from the Tennessee Veterans Business Association (TVBA). The TVBA award, which recognizes the company's commitment to veteran hiring and retention, will be formally presented at the 2015 TVBA business and education exposition held at the Holiday Inn Knoxville Downtown World's Fair Park on January 26-27.

Leidos was named one of the "Best for Vets" Employers for 2014 by Military Times, which honors companies that most successfully focus on culture and policies that support military veterans. The company operates a dedicated military veteran outreach program, Operation MVP. Through the program, Leidos teams with military transition centers, military associations and veteran organizations in an effort to identify and hire separating and retiring military veterans. The Operation MVP team participates in specific career development and networking events geared towards the veteran and military dependent/caregiver population, and stays actively engaged with military transition offices, Department of Labor representatives, as well as veteran non-profit and membership organizations.

The TVBA provides entrepreneurship training, business development assistance and networking opportunities to military veterans and their families. The 2015 expo connects government, industry, active duty and retired military personnel, and veteran-focused non-profits for a business and education showcase and hiring event.
