

Cardno TEC-Leidos Joint Venture Awarded Contract By Naval Facilities Engineering Command Atlantic

June 30, 2014

Joint Venture Companies to Provide Architectural, Engineering, and Environmental Services for the Tactical Training Theater Assessment and Planning Program

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., June 30, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Cardno (ASX: CDD) merger partner Cardno TEC and Leidos (NYSE: LDOS), announced their limited liability company, Cardno TEC-Leidos LLC, was awarded a prime contract by the Naval Facilities Engineering Command (NAVFAC) Atlantic to provide architectural, engineering, and environmental services in support of the Tactical Training Theater Assessment and Planning (TAP) program. The single-award indefinite-delivery/indefinite-quantity (IDIQ) contract has a one-year base period of performance, four one-year options, and a total contract value of $50 million, if all options are exercised.

The TAP program is intended to ensure the sustainability of Navy training ranges and operating areas to support warfighter readiness around the world. Under the contract Cardno TEC-Leidos LLC will provide services, including: Navy operation and associated training requirements; environmental planning; operational range clearance and munitions; Range Complex Management Plans; Range Sustainability Environmental Program Assessments; Air Installation Compatibility Use Zone and Range Air Installation Compatibility Use Zone encroachment; and marine species documentation. These services are required to prepare warfighter readiness documentation, including environmental and military range planning documents. Work may be performed world-wide but will be performed primarily in Virginia, California, Washington, and Arizona.
