

SAIC Appoints Mark Schultz as General Counsel for the Technical Services and Information Technology Segment

June 19, 2013

MCLEAN, Va., June 19, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) (NYSE: SAI) today announced it has appointed Mark Schultz as General Counsel for the Technical Services and Information Technology segment, effective June 24. Schultz will serve as executive vice president and general counsel for the planned company to be named SAIC following the company's planned separation into two independent, publicly traded companies, as announced Aug. 30, 2012.

Schultz brings nearly 30 years of industry legal experience to SAIC. He specializes in technology, finance and corporate governance and has served as the chief legal and risk officer and corporate secretary for MWH Global, Inc. Prior to MWH, Mark worked in senior legal executive roles for SRA International and Raytheon's Missile Systems business. He was also a partner for global law firms Sidley Austin and Perkins Coie in Japan and the U.S., where he oversaw legal strategies supporting large-scale financing and construction projects for multiple industries.

He holds a bachelor's degree in economics and foreign service from Alma College in Alma, Mich., and graduated magna cum laude from Harvard Law School.

"We are excited to welcome Mark to our executive leadership team," said Tony Moraco, president of the segment. "His extensive business experience in a range of markets will be a tremendous asset to the new SAIC as he assumes leadership and oversight responsibility for the legal affairs and risk management activities of our business."
