

Lucy R. Fitch Joins SAIC as Senior Vice President

September 12, 2011

MCLEAN, Va., Sept. 12, 2011 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ --

Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) (NYSE: SAI) announced today that Lucy Reilly Fitch has joined the company as Senior Vice President, Corporate Communications.

In this role, Fitch will lead the company's media relations, employee communications, and corporate marketing.

Fitch comes to SAIC after 26 years of positions of increasing responsibility in corporate communications, mergers and acquisitions, strategic planning and business development. She was most recently senior vice president, corporate communications, at BAE Systems, Inc., where she also served as senior vice president of mergers and acquisitions. Before joining BAE in 2000, she was the director, business development and strategic planning at Lockheed Martin Aeronautics Sector, among other positions in the defense industry. She began her career as a journalist focusing on business, aerospace and defense, and technology.

She holds a Masters in Business Administration - International from Georgetown University and a Bachelor of Science in Journalism & Mass Communication from Kansas State University. Her board memberships include Association for Corporate Growth, The Atlantic Council, Tragedy Assistance Project for Survivors (TAPS), the National Guard Youth Foundation and the Kansas State University A.Q. Miller School of Journalism and Mass Communications Board of Advisors. She has lectured on leadership, strategy, mergers and acquisitions, and communication at Georgetown University's McDonough School of Business, executive leadership programs at Oxford University, and the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania among others.

"Lucy brings communication and leadership skills, a strategic orientation and a breadth of business experience that combine to make her uniquely qualified to lead SAIC's communications," said Debbie Lee James, Executive Vice President for Communications and Government Affairs.

About SAIC

SAIC is a FORTUNE 500® scientific, engineering, and technology applications company that uses its deep domain knowledge to solve problems of vital importance to the nation and the world, in national security, energy and the environment, critical infrastructure, and health. The company's approximately 41,000 employees serve customers in the U.S. Department of Defense, the intelligence community, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, other U.S. Government civil agencies and selected commercial markets. Headquartered in McLean, Va., SAIC had annual revenues of $11.1 billion for its fiscal year ended January 31, 2011. For more information, visit www.saic.com. SAIC: From Science to Solutions®

Statements in this announcement, other than historical data and information, constitute forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. A number of factors could cause our actual results, performance, achievements, or industry results to be very different from the results, performance, or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Some of these factors include, but are not limited to, the risk factors set forth in SAIC's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended January 31, 2011, and other such filings that SAIC makes with the SEC from time to time. Due to such uncertainties and risks, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof.

Contact: Melissa Koskovich

Vernon Guidry

(703) 676-6762

(703) 676-6255

Melissa.l.koskovich@saic.com vernon.a.guidry.jr@saic.com

SOURCE SAIC