

SAIC Demonstrates Integrated Simulation and Training Solutions at the 2010 Interservice/Industry Training, Simulation and Education Conference

November 29, 2010

(ORLANDO) Nov. 29, 2010 -- Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) [NYSE: SAI] will feature advanced defense and security solutions at the 2010 Interservice/Industry Training, Simulation and Education Conference (IITSEC), Nov. 29-Dec. 2, at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, Fla.

With the theme "Empowering Through Integration", SAIC will demonstrate the Common Driver Trainer (CDT) reconfigurable crew cab for collective task training; the Virtual Command Simulation Environment (VCSE), powered by SAIC's On-Line Virtual Interactive Environment (OLIVE), for training and decision support; and the mobile training range for fourth generation live training and engagement.

"SAIC's training products offer integration and critical support for next generation live and simulated training solutions, infrastructure and communications," said Beverly Seay, SAIC senior vice president and business unit general manager. "Our OLIVE 3-D virtual environment technology illustrates our ability to integrate virtually any data, images, processes, and training need into turn-key, customized solutions, while our service-based architecture product line demonstrates how we see the future of modeling and simulation."

SAIC will be located at booth 1640, where experts will demonstrate cutting-edge live training, virtual, and constructive simulation products and solutions. For more information please visit www.saic.com/iitsec.
