

SAIC Awarded General Services Administration Language Services Schedule

October 8, 2008

Company to Provide Linguistic and Analytical Services to the Department of Defense and Government Agencies World Wide

SAN DIEGO and MCLEAN, Va., Oct 08, 2008 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ -- Science Applications International Corporation (NYSE: SAI) announced it has been awarded the General Services Administration (GSA) Language Services Schedule to provide multilingual translation services to the Department of Defense and other government agencies. The schedule has a five year base period of performance and three five-year options. The contract is an indefinite-delivery/indefinite-quantity schedule, with an estimated value of $80 million if all options are exercised.

The Language Services Schedule facilitates access to an array of language services, including translation, interpretation, sign language, and training. Under the contract SAIC will translate documents and other materials; provide interpreters and language training to deploying personnel; and maintain and advance personnel language proficiency.

"SAIC is pleased to add this important schedule to our GSA contract portfolio," said Dianne Tolliver, senior vice president and SAIC Government Contract Support Center director. "The schedule will allow us to provide additional key services to our customers."
