

SAIC Awarded $34 Million Task Order By Naval Surface Warfare Center - Crane Division

May 21, 2008

Company to Support Missile Defense Systems

SAN DIEGO and MCLEAN, Va., May 21, 2008 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ -- Science Applications International Corporation (NYSE: SAI) today announced it has been awarded a task order by Naval Surface Warfare Center (NSWC) Crane, Ind. Under the task order, SAIC will provide technical, engineering and data management services in support of the Missile Defense Agency. The task order has a two- year base period of performance, three one-year options and a maximum value of more than $34 million if all options are exercised. The task order was awarded under the Seaport-e contract. Work will be performed in Huntsville, Ala and at NSWC Crane.

SAIC will provide technical, engineering, data management, logistics and project management support to help maintain the serviceability and readiness of missile assets. SAIC will also help manage information databases for the Consolidated Missile Assets Reuse for Targets (CMART) Program.

"SAIC is proud to continue our support of NSWC Crane's mission as a provider of expertise for missile defense systems," said Tom Baybrook, SAIC senior vice president and business unit general manager. "We look forward to helping our customer reutilize government agency hardware for target programs, configuration management documentation, and tracking systems to ensure flight readiness."
