[SAIC Letterhead]

Date: August 28, 2006
To: SAIC Employees and Stockholders
From: Ken Dahlberg
Subject: Postponement of Special Stockholders Meeting

I am disappointed to report to you that our special stockholders' meeting scheduled for tomorrow, August 29th, will be postponed to Wednesday, September 27th. We need to hold a brief stockholders' meeting on August 29th merely for the purpose of adjourning the meeting until September 27th.

The delay is unavoidable and necessary to provide you with time to understand the implications of the recently adopted Pension Protection Act of 2006 on the Company and its retirement plans and to make an informed decision on the proposals required to complete the IPO. On August 17th, the President signed into law the Pension Protection Act of 2006, which implemented a comprehensive reform of existing retirement plan law. Among other things, this 900 page legislation provides participants with rights to diversify or sell company stock in retirement plans. We will provide you with supplemental materials addressing the Pension Protection Act, its impact on our business and retirement plans and our approach for compliance.

Given the importance of the merger transaction and IPO, I wanted our employees and stockholders to be completely informed about this new law and its impact before proceeding with the special stockholders' meeting and IPO schedule. In addition to receiving information about the Pension Protection Act, we will post additional information in Question and Answer format to inform you about the voting process for the September 27th meeting – if you have voted and do not want to change your vote, you will not be required to do anything more; if you voted and want to change your vote, you can do so and we will outline the procedures to be used.

Although I am disappointed with the delay, it is the right thing to do so that employees and stockholders are completely informed before we move forward with our plans to complete the IPO.

/s/ Ken Dahlberg
